

The conference venue and other important information

Arriving at the airport:

To travel to the city and your hotel either take the airporter hotel shuttle bus or a taxi (fare $50-$65). If you are arriving at the same time as other interstate delegates, sharing a taxi is probably the best option.

Local Hotels

The Travelodge Hobart www.tfehotels.com/brands/travelodge-hotels/travelodge-hobart/ is offering a discount for conference delegates.

There are many other hotel choices in Hobart, from budget to luxury; browsing the usual hotel booking sites can provide further information about your preferred style.

There is also the option of AIRBNB - <https://www.airbnb.com.au> search for availability in North Hobart or West Hobart

Travelling from your hotel to the conference venue

City Hotels: catch a bus from the GPO in Elizabeth Street - stop E - check with the driver: most buses from this stop will go past Elizabeth College. Or catch the bus heading uphill (North West) from Elizabeth Street between Liverpool Street and Bathurst Street.

Or walk – its about 15 minutes walk from the city centre (the Elizabeth Street Mall)

Or take a taxi

Parking: there is some parking on campus and there is plenty of parking in the surrounding streets. Much parking north of Warwick Street will be unmetered and unlimited after 6pm on Friday evening and all weekend. Do check the signs though.

Conference Venue: 256 Elizabeth Street, North Hobart

Easiest access is from Warwick Street
